

Faith Confessions

Friday, May 6, 2016 1:27 PM

Faith comes from hearing the Word of God, therefore I confess that:

I believe what God says is true

God has given me faith

I always possesses what God says

I am persistent

I rely on God's ability because I walk by faith not by sight

I don't know defeat

I thrive during difficulty because I persevere

I am not discouraged

I don't look at natural things, but I rejoice in truth

God's word is truth

I am not nervous, nor do I tremble

I am not overpowered, because I am an overcomer

I look directly to the word of God

I know what God has said because it's in His Word

I know that what God says is a what He will do

I know God's word is final

I claim what God says and step out in it

I know God's promises

I demand results, because faith demands results

I claim my rights as a child of God

I am steadfast and immovable

I am invincible

I am grounded in the Word of God
